Amadeus Harmonie

A. Scott Wood, Conductor

The colors and composers from our November concert by the Amadeus Virtuosi string ensemble are reinterpreted in this program by the Amadeus Harmonie wind ensemble. The harmonie (woodwind ensemble) was a source of delight and pride in the streets and salons of 18th century

Vienna. Mozart's Serenade in E-flat, K. 375 provided pleasing entertainment; he also arranged music from Don Giovanni so that his melodies would leave lasting impressions on everyday listeners. One hundred years later, Dvořák wrote his Serenade for Winds as a nostalgic tribute to this Viennese tradition.
