

John Eaton

John Eaton has been delighting D.C. audiences for more than forty years, long enough to have earned the moniker "The Other Washington Monument." He blends insightful, witty commentary on the composers and their music with extraordinary pianistic talent.

Proceeds to benefit Amadeus Concerts' educational outreach programs, to introduce local youngsters to music and to inspire the most gifted to consider musical careers

Friday, November 13, 2009

The Madeira School
8328 Georgetown Pike
McLean, Virginia 22102

Champagne Reception 7:00 pm
Concert 8:00 pm

Join us for an unforgettable evening of music by Gershwin, Porter, Ellington, Carmichael, and others, featuring Washington's own John Eaton on the piano and rising star Lena Seikaly doing vocals

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

Advance Purchase $50

At Door $60

Call 703.759.5334

Lena Seikaly Jazz Quartet

Lena Seikaly has performed to rave reviews locally, nationally, and in Europe and the Middle East. She is currently Strathmore Artist-in-Residence at the renowned Strathmore Music Center. When you hear her beautiful, clear voice, you will know that the next generation of Ella Fitzgeralds, Sarah Vaughans, Julie Londons, and Diana Kralls has arrived!